WORKSHOP SESSION I 10:40AM -11:30AM

Workshop Title	Workshop Presenter	Workshop Description
Navigating the CCC system as a student, faculty, and administrator.	Maria Luisa Villagomez	Navigating the CCC system is not as easy for first generation Latino students. Familiarizing ourselves with the CCC system is imperative to our success. How can we be successful in an unknown environment when we might be the only ones in our families to have attended College? This workshop will present the attendees with the "dos and don'ts" in our road to college and career success; a road that must consider the cultural context of being Latino.

Unbraiding the Latina Identity: Breaking Stereotypes of Latina Women to Empower and Uplift	Abigail Patton, Maria Gutierrez, Jasmine Garcia, Elizabeth Blancas, Andrea Salazar, Stephanie Contreras	In this interactive and exploratory session, participants will be asked to re-conceptualize the mold of Latina women by challenging stereotypes and oppressive narratives. Through the use of personal narratives, dialogue, and art, participants will reconstruct what it means to be a Latina Women and the capital we bring with us in educational and professional environments. The session will be lead by Community College Administrators, Graduate Students and Community College students to capture diverse voices, so we encourage both students and professionals to participate in our workshop.
Mi Legado: From Migrant Worker to Doctoral Candidate	Senorina S. Saldivar	A young woman's story of her journey to Higher Education. She was the first in her family to graduate from college. She will share the obstacles she faced during her educational journey. Obstacles such as low self-esteem, machismo, second language learner, stereotypes, etc. Come and learn how she overcame her obstacles to become the person and professional she is today.
Owning Your Authenticity: The Journey of Young Latinas/os and Their Families” Acquiring Strength through Adversity	Dr. Michelle Hernandez	Through an interactive exercise and real life examples via storytelling and pictures, I plan to discuss the various obstacles that may impede the progression of becoming a successful college leader in higher education while discussing positive ways to cope and find a community. Topics included but not limited to are race, gender, disability, shame, authenticity, and the intersectionality therein.
Latina Leadership Institute: Part 1 (Professionals Only)	Dr. Daisy Gonzalez, Deputy of the California Community Colleges	Welcome and California Initiative Overview

WORKSHOP SESSION 2 11:40AM -12:30PM

Workshop Title	Workshop Presenter	Workshop Description
Sex & La Virgin de Guadalupe	Felicitas Nunez	This lecture is a point-by-point examination of indigenous codices within the image that will be examined, as well as the multiple meanings of the term virgin. This presentation, from a feminine/indigenous perspective, reaffirms the sacred feminine re-emerging individually and collectively during this cycle of time, which the Maya and other indigenous peoples predicted. Our modern patriarchal societies on a global scale lack or undermine the strength of our natural feminine force. The knowledge that this presentation proposes to share is, a rooted understanding of our feminine sexuality as divine, sacred and scientifically linked to the lunar cycle and our world today.
Jugando Dominos: Strategic Leadership While Working at a Predominantly White Campus	Yudi Lewis	The purpose of this workshop is to explore the problematic leadership scenarios that Latinas face while working at a predominantly White campus. We will have discussions on creating partnerships, opportunities for collaboration, networking, and identifying allies in the workplace. Participants will have the opportunity to share their challenges and opportunities and how we can move the work forward.
Are you interest in Transferring to a 4-year university? Come and learn everything all the tips to transfer successfully	Danna Chavez, MA	In this workshop, you will learn the information necessary to be a successful Transfer student to a 4-year institution. How to choose your school? Transfer tips to highlight your application, Financial Aid and more.
Teaching Equity and Fostering Success Through the American Dream	Shirley Miranda Brenes	Join me as I share how I use my classroom as a platform to teach students equity, strategies for success, and social justice through the American Dream theme. Explore instructional materials, classroom activities, and civic engagement that may prove helpful as you continue to tirelessly work for our Latinx and other students.
Latina Leadership Institute: Part 2 (Professionals Only)	Dr. Sofia Ramos, MBA, PhD	Smashing Ceilings, Latina Empowerment and Destiny
