WORKSHOP SESSION I 10:40AM -11:30AM

Workshop Title/ Location	Workshop Presenter	Workshop Description
Navigating the CCC system as a student, faculty, and administrator. Santa Rita Hills Room	Maria Luisa Villagomez	Navigating the CCC system is not as easy for first generation Latino students. Familiarizing ourselves with the CCC system is imperative to our success. How can we be successful in an unknown environment when we might be the only ones in our families to have attended College? This workshop will present the attendees with the "dos and don'ts" in our road to college and career success; a road that must consider the cultural context of being Latino.

Unbraiding the Latina Identity:
Breaking Stereotypes of Latina
Women to Empower and Uplift

Figueroa A Room

Abigail Patton, Maria
Gutierrez, Jasmine
Garcia, Elizabeth
Blancas, Andrea Salazar,
Stephanie Contreras

In this interactive and exploratory session, participants will be asked to re-conceptualize the mold of Latina women by challenging stereotypes and oppressive narratives. Through the use of personal narratives, dialogue, and art, participants will reconstruct what it means to be a Latina Women and the capital we bring with us in educational and professional environments. The session will be lead by Community College Administrators, Graduate Students and Community College students to capture diverse voices, so we encourage both students and professionals to participate in our workshop.

Mi Legado: From Migrant Worker to Doctoral Candidate

San Rafael Room

Senorina S.
Saldivar

A young woman's story of her journey to Higher Education. She was the first in her family to graduate from college. She will share the obstacles she faced during her educational journey. Obstacles such as low self-esteem, machismo, second language learner, stereotypes, etc. Come and learn how she overcame her obstacles to become the person and professional she is today.

Sex & La Virgen de Guadalupe

Los Padres Room

Felicitas Nunez

This lecture is a point-by-point examination of indigenous codices within the image that will be examined, as well as the multiple meanings of the term virgin. This presentation, from a feminine/indigenous perspective, reaffirms the sacred feminine re-emerging individually and collectively during this cycle of time, which the Maya and other indigenous peoples predicted. Our modern patriarchal societies on a global scale lack or undermine the strength of our natural feminine force. The knowledge that this presentation proposes to share is, a rooted understanding of our feminine sexuality as divine, sacred and scientifically linked to the lunar cycle and our world today.

Owning Your Authenticity:
The Journey of Young
Latinas/os and Their Families” Acquiring Strength
through Adversity

Santa Rita Hills Room

Dr. Michelle Hernandez

Through an interactive exercise and real life examples via storytelling and pictures, I plan to discuss the various obstacles that may impede the progression of becoming a successful college leader in higher education while discussing positive ways to cope and find a community. Topics included but not limited to are race, gender, disability, shame, authenticity, and the intersectionality therein.

Jugando Dominos: Strategic Leadership While Working at a Predomenantly White Campus

Los Padres Room

Yudi Lewis

The purpose of this workshop is to explore the problematic leadership scenarios that Latinas face while working at a predominantly White campus. We will have discussions on creating partnerships, opportunities for collaboration, networking, and identifying allies in the workplace. Participants will have the opportunity to share their challenges and opportunities and how we can move the work forward.

Are you interested in Transferring to a 4-year university? Come and learn everything all the tips to transfer successfully

San Rafael Room

Danna Chavez, MA

In this workshop, you will learn the information necessary to be a successful Transfer student to a 4-year institution. How to choose your school? Transfer tips to highlight your application, Financial Aid and more.

Teaching Equity and Fostering Success Through the American Dream

Figueroa A Room

Shirley Miranda Brenes

Join me as I share how I use my classroom as a platform to teach students equity, strategies for success, and social justice through the American Dream theme. Explore instructional materials, classroom activities, and civic engagement that may prove helpful as you continue to tirelessly work for our Latinx and other students.
